Experience

August, 2017 — Present

Frontend web developer at zkreations

I worked primarily on creating and maintaining two JavaScript libraries that facilitated the product creation process. As team leader I encouraged the change of the methodology to an agile environment which optimized the development process.

April, 2015 — August, 2017

Freelancer

My main works consist in layout and modification of websites, as well as creating custom functionalities and also creating applications from scratch.
